

NSA Innovation Expo

May 18-19, 2020 | Renaissance Waverly | Atlanta, GA

Call for Abstracts

Don't miss your chance to speak at the INPO RPM meeting! Vendors have the opportunity to share innovative ideas, new technology and services that represent a cost savings to the nuclear industry. 20 minute presentations will be scheduled on Monday, May 18th and Tuesday morning, May 19th.

Presentation Opportunities

Vendors who are exhibiting at the conference may submit an abstract for consideration to present during one of the 20 minute sessions. We suggest making a joint presentation with a utility representative where the site has realized a real cost savings!

Abstract submittal begins Friday, March 6th. Last day to submit an abstract is Friday, April 3rd. There is no cost to submit an abstract. If more than 28 abstracts are received, the abstracts that are most relevant to this Innovation Expo goals will be chosen.

Submit your abstract to: nsanews@charter.net by the deadline.

All decisions regarding abstracts will be communicated by email on or before Friday, May 1st.

Note: If you are selected to present, your abstract will be printed in the NSA Innovation Expo program. The submitted abstract will serve as an introduction to the presentation topic. Vendors should use this opportunity to attract attendees to their discussion.

Questions: contact DeeDee McNeill (401-637-4224 or nsanews@charter.net)
